We have several sets of books ideal for English Language Learners and fostering Independent Readers. The library has 6 copies available of each item in each of the following collections. These book sets are all available for extended checkout periods. See titles on page 2.

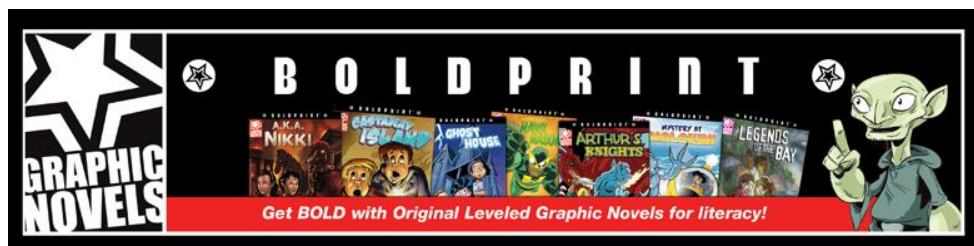

Hampton-Brown Exchange:

With motivating content and in-book supports, this series encourages independent reading. Each book features On-Page Coach In-Book Supports like Summaries at the beginning of chapters, On-Page Glossaries for vocabulary and Comprehension Checks at the end of chapters. Downloadable Student Journals and Teacher's guide are also available. The collection consists of 45 titles divided into 3 reading level-based collections (2nd-4th grade, 3rd-5th grade, and 4th-6th grade) and grouped into themed units. Visit <http://hbavenues.com/highpoint/library/> for more information.

Graphic Poetry:

Adding illustrations in a variety of styles to curriculum-aligned poems, this series is an accessible and engaging introduction to the world of poetry ideal for grades 4th-8th. By supplementing the text with graphic representations students are helped to understand the imagery, figurative language, tone, and meaning of the poems. Additionally, each poem comes with activities designed to improve literacy skills. Visit <http://www.graphicpoetrybooks.com/home.html> for more information.

Boldprint Graphic Novels:

This series of original graphic novels for grades 4th-8th combines high-impact illustrations designed to engage all students, including struggling and reluctant readers, with carefully levelled text. Each graphic novel is curriculum-linked by topic or theme, and includes questions and activities focusing on Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, Media, and the Arts.
